This event helped to identify the issues the C-level are facing today and sharing this information helps CISOs to adapt culturally and technologically to prepare and ensure business resilience and continuity in a time of crisis. A huge strategic advantage for business leaders" CISO, Acuity (June 2020)

"Great platform to engage and broaden awareness and experience, especially during lock down when things are in many areas stretched and time is not as abundant as many assume." CISO, EDF Energy (May 2020)
