HUNTERS

Thursday 3 November, 18:00-21:30
The Dome (Green Room), Edinburgh

Hosted by

A Group Discussion:

What holistic approaches are we taking to the challenges of today's security operations?

What are current best practices that people are taking to modernise and scale-up SOC platforms?

About the Venue

The Dome (Green Room), Edinburgh

The Dome restaurant is George Street's most iconic building and one of Edinburgh's illustrious landmarks, in the heart of Edinburgh's New Town. The Dome is a category A listed building which was first built as the headquarters of the Commercial Bank of Scotland in 1847. The building was designed by David Rhind in a Graeco-Roman style. It stands on the site of the Physicians' Hall, the offices of the Royal College of Physicians of Edinburgh, which was constructed in the 18th century to designs by James Craig, the planner of the New Town.

What holistic approaches are we taking to the challenges of today’s security operations?

What are current best practices that people are taking to modernise and scale-up SOC platforms?

You are invited to participate in this unique dinner roundtable discussion hosted in Edinburgh. Guests will have the opportunity to benchmark challenges and approaches with CISO peers, enabling a holistic view of today’s security operations.

Hosted by Pulse Conferences and kindly sponsored by Hunters, this group discussion will connect peers to compare how security teams are being empowered to automate the detection and response to incidents across attack surfaces.

Conducted under The Chatham House Rule on non-attribution, this discussion will be co-chaired by a Hunters strategist and a fellow CISO. Pulse Conferences is your host.

Talking points:

- What holistic approaches are we taking to the challenges of today's security operations?
- How can we empower our security teams to automatically identify and respond to incidents?
- What are current best practices that people are taking to modernise and scale-up SOC platforms?

Please R.S.V.P. on the link below soonest to confirm your place at the table. There is no cost to attend this event. Confirmations will be done on a ‘first to confirm’ basis.

Many thanks for considering this invitation.

We hope that you can join peers for what promises to be a dynamic discussion, a top culinary experience and great company.

Yours sincerely,

Team Pulse

About Hunters

We’re a group of security and technology experts with a mission to revolutionize security operations.

Our SOC platform empowers security teams to automatically identify and respond to incidents that matter across their entire attack surface. Through built-in detection engineering, data correlation, and automatic investigation, we help teams overcome volume, complexity, and false positives. Hunters mitigates real threats faster and more reliably than SIEMs, ultimately reducing customers’ overall security risk. For more information visit
