Welcome to the inaugural CSO 360 Middle East

Resilience as a Business Enabler: Protecting People, Profits, Property, Reputation

Dear Colleague,

Welcome to the Annual Meeting Place for Security Leaders in the Middle East! We are thrilled to invite you to actively participate as a 'founding participant' of the first ever CSO 360 Middle East Conference.

As Chief Security Officer and director of corporate security roles shift amidst the backdrop of geopolitical turbulence and technological transformation impact, there has never been a better time for these conversations. The CSO's success increasingly depends on demonstrating security's value to the business, and business success depends on trust, security and resilience.

Co-location: Given the critical need for security disciplines to align and work together more closely than ever before, we are excited to introduce this inaugural CSO 360 Middle East for senior executives in corporate security, resilience, intelligence and investigations. Part of our Global CSO 360 series, This dynamic new event for the Middle East region sits alongside 6th CISO 360 Middle East in Dubai. This strategic cross-security thought-leadership will deliver maximum value for security professionals.
