connect | inspire | innovate

Our Pillars

- Global Intimacy – We recognise that security and resilience operate at local, regional and international levels. We deliver localised best practices powered by regional and global insights, enabling security leaders to think more widely while acting locally with precision and cultural relevance. With a decade of practitioner-led engagement across 30+ countries, our focus is on building global intimacy through local connection.

- Cross-Security Bridge – We break down silos across security risk management disciplines – Cyber | Corporate Resilience | Intelligence | Investigations | GRC. We unite professionals creating comprehensive security ecosystems that address today's interconnected threat landscape.

- Practitioner-Led, Innovation-Supported – We focus on the CISOs, CSOs and practitioners who defend today's front lines day to day – together with the partners who help them do it better, recognising that resilient supply chains and strategic partnerships are essential to comprehensive 360° security.

- Independent and Authentic Voice – We are an independent voice delivering authentic real-world experiences and actionable insights ensuring that our community receives practical wisdom they can implement.

Our Events

- Pulse is the creator and host of the CISO 360 and CSO 360 series compromising flagship congresses, regional conferences, localised roundtable activities and networking around the world.
- Our specialism is in delivering memorable live events for security leaders working across security disciplines. Always practitioner-led, the Pulse community unites CISOs, CSOs, practitioners and specialists in security, resilience, risk, intelligence, investigations and the supply chain.
- We create environments where the brightest minds can benchmark approaches and share strategic practical insights.
- Every Pulse experience is meticulously crafted to deliver meaningful value and create lasting impact. We don't simply host events – we build informal professional communities where security leaders elevate their teams and organisations and develop the cross-functional understanding that drives business ecosystems forward in a resilient way. We collaborate with professional associations to spread awareness in a mutually beneficial way.
- Beyond our physical events, we invest in year-round access to curated content, peer discussions, and virtual roundtables (www.security360circle.com) to support continuous engagement, learning and networking.
