Welcome to the 10th CISO 360 Global Congress - Lisbon 2026

CISOs, senior cyber security practitioners and luminaries from across Europe and beyond will convene in Lisbon this June under The Chatham House Rule to examine the realities shaping the role today.

The CISO role now sits at the intersection of innovation, trust, and business and national competitiveness. Our focus remains firmly on meaningful conversations, peer insights, and the opportunity for CISOs and senior cybersecurity practitioners to step back from daily pressures to reflect with others carrying similar responsibilities. Ten years on, the purpose of CISO 360 remains simple: to provide a trusted space for security leaders to learn from one another.

This is not a celebration of longevity. It is a recognition of security leadership and how far the profession has come.

To those who have been part of the CISO 360 journey from the beginning - you built this and we whole-heartedly thank you. To those joining for the first time - we welcome you.

We look forward to meeting you in Lisbon for this once-in-a-decade edition!

Warm regards,

Wednesday 24 June 2026 - CISO 360 Roundtable
Timings are provisional

Protecting your CISO value as AI moves faster than any of us

The Faculty

Led by with and for CISOs.

Closed peer roundtable · The Chatham House Rule · practitioner-led. A peer-led session drawing on the community rather than positioning any one person as presenter. No slides. No products. Just CISOs, in confidence, solving it together.

What CISOs Should Be Learning Before Quantum Changes the Rules. AI as an opportunity for professional value, longevity and well-being

AI now reports back on our own security posture, and the ground shifts day by day - what we knew yesterday is already outdated. Yet most of the AI conversation on the security circuit stays defensive. Let's take the other view: AI as a professional opportunity, and a question every CISO is quietly asking - how do I pivot to protect my value and longevity in a field where knowledge expires this fast? AI as opportunity - the skills to lean into now. AI as a route to longevity, value, and escaping the glass ceiling- is the more human, peer-led take that also reinforces wellbeing. The skills that matter before quantum rewrites the rules.

Part 1: Beyond the educated parrot: protecting your value as AI moves faster than any of us.

- How can CISOs pivot to maximise their professional value and longevity?
- What's the most outdated assumption you held about AI six months ago?
- Where is AI genuinely reducing your risk versus creating new exposure?
- What skill are you deliberately building, or hiring for, that you weren't a year ago?
- When quantum changes the rules, who on your team is ready, and who needs to be?
- How does AI change your own value as a leader, not just your toolset?
- AI best practices for modern CISO workflows - designing secure, AI-enabled security workflows across security programmes

AGENDA IS SHAPED BY THE ATTENDEES A NATURAL CONVERSATION.

- Peer-to-peer conversation - 'seated in the round'
- Antithesis of traditional conference formats - no slides, no stages, no audience. CISO knowledge share. Your challenges become our agenda. We consulted everyone pre-event to identify CISOs priorities.
- Chatham House Rule - non-attribution setting, no press
- All voices are heard as we draw out insights from the diverse experience in the room. Experienced CISO moderators and facilitators guide rather than direct.
- Practical takeaways - benchmark implementable approaches to risks, threats and opportunities

Explore integrated approaches to resilience that connect security operations, third-party oversight, and governance strategies.
John Chisum, Vice President, Solutions Consulting, Mastercard Cybersecurity
- 10:05 Panel: 2026 and Beyond: Security as a Business Enabler
• How are CISOs embedding security as a business enabler and protecting the digital trust that underpins brands?
• What governance, assurance, and accountability models work when innovation moves faster than policy?
• How can CISOs support innovation at scale that is ethical, resilient and trusted by customers, regulators, and boards?
• What are key challenges across cyber, fraud, AI, data, and physical security?
• How are we keeping pace to stay ahead of AI, Quantum and emerging technologies?
With: Toks Oladuti, Global CISO, Dentons (UK)
Dr. Viktor Polic, CISO Office, ILO United Nations (Switzerland)
- 10:35 Spotlight: What Story do your Metrics Tell; Does the Board Even Care?
Presenting to the board or the Executive Leadership Team is an opportunity that should not be taken lightly. As CISOs we've battled for years to get our seat at the table, but now that it's becoming more common, how do we make the most of it. In this discussion we'll dive into how to bring an engaging and compelling narrative and some common pitfalls that we should avoid. We'll draw on real-world examples of both and use those as case study material to arrive at effective and creative strategies you can use to get the most impact out of your next presentation to the board and/or ELT.

Martin Riley, CTO, Bridewell
- 12:55 Panel: Cross-Sector Cyber Resilience Design & Testing Coordinated Crisis Response
While many organisations are strengthening cloud security and AI governance, far fewer Cyber practitioners from industry, government and academia are addressing the systemic questions:
How would cities, states, critical infrastructure operators, and private enterprises coordinate in the event of simultaneous cyber-induced disruptions, such as extended power outages, supply chain interruptions, or water shortages? Against a backdrop of DORA, NIS2, and increasing geopolitical risk, Who leads? Who communicates? Who owns recovery orchestration?

Thursday 25 June 2026 - CISO 360 Global Congress - Day One

Timings are provisional

- 14:55 Panel: What does a "Mythos-ready" Security Programme look like? What Has Changed? What are CISOs Experiencing Now?
AI is becoming faster at validating, prioritising and acting on weaknesses, turning signal into something operational at unprecedented speed. We look at where the real risk now sits and compare how CISOs are governing autonomous and agent-driven environments without slowing innovation and business adoption.
- How is AI-driven vulnerability discovery reshaping the defender timeline?
  - How can we build a "Mythos-ready" security programme?
  - What is the new operating model of vulnerability management?
  - What are the minimum actions required now?
  - What has fundamentally changed — and what hasn't?
- With: Alyssa Miller, CISO, Epiq Global \(USA\)
- 15:30 Case Story: SBOM as Part of an Integrated Cyber Defense for the Digital Platform

Real-life use cases and a 5-phase model (Impact, Act, Connect, Observe, Evolve) to spark a discussion on how societal changes, not just technology, are reshaping the way we must manage digital risk today.
- How we move through the "security cycle," often without realising it

Friday 26 June 2026 - CISO 360 Global Congress - Day Two

Timings are provisional

- 09:00 Case Story: Open Source, Open Risk: Securing Engineering Teams in the npm Era
Paul Colnan, CISO & Director of Platform Engineering, NewDay (UK)
- 09:20 Group Roundtable Discussion: Reshaping Cyber Risk and Commercial Decision-Making
Practical leadership skillset needed to navigate that complexity – including prioritisation under uncertainty, organisational trade-offs, and how to build structural resilience. Secure-by-design approaches and embedding resilience into systems and decision-making and the key risks, challenges and opportunities.
Led by: Gemma Ungoed-Thomas, Senior Fellow, King's College London. Former Director for State Threats, Cyber and Technology in the UK Cabinet Office
- 10:00 Panel: Cybercrime, Geopolitics and the New Threat Economy
The lines between cybercrime, state interests and geopolitical disruption continue to blur. Russian-speaking cybercriminal ecosystems have demonstrated how organised ransomware groups, influence operations, financial extortion and strategic disruption can intersect with wider geopolitical tensions and conflict. For CISOs, the challenge is no longer simply preventing attacks, but understanding how global instability, sanctions, proxy activity and politically motivated operations are reshaping the threat landscape facing enterprises.
• How has the Russian-speaking cybercriminal ecosystem evolved over the last five years?
• Where do cybercrime and geopolitical interests overlap and where are the boundaries less clear?
• Are organisations prepared for cyber disruption linked to wider geopolitical escalation?
• How are ransomware groups adapting their tactics, targets and alliances?
• What role do intelligence-sharing, offensive security and resilience now play in enterprise defence?
• How should CISOs communicate geopolitical cyber risk to boards and executive leadership?
• What does preparedness look like when threats operate at both criminal and strategic scale?
With: Archie Millett, Student, King's College (UK); Daniel Norman, Regional Director EMEA, ISF (UK) and further specialists
- 10:30 Panel: Translating Governance into Genuine Resilience
While frameworks such as NIST CSF 2.0 and regulatory expectations like DORA provide strong structure, the real challenge lies in developing metrics and reporting that accurately reflect organisational exposure and enable leadership to make informed, risk-based decisions. We look at how organisations can move from a posture of first-line security into true resilience.
- 11:00 Morning Coffee Break + CISO to CISO 1-2-1 Speed-Meetings
Find your people in 5-minute conversations. Pre-matched based on mutual interests.
- 11:50 Open Panel: Ten Years On: What Has Changed, and What Hasn't. Veteran and Newcomer
Not a retrospective panel. A structured conversation between CISOs who attended the very first CISO 360 (or one of the earliest editions) and CISOs who are attending for the first time this year. The veteran and the newcomer, in dialogue, about what the function looked like a decade ago and what it looks like now - the status, the stress, the tools, the board relationship, the talent pipeline, the personal toll. Facilitated, intimate – with audience input as to what they see as different. If you can find the right two people and brief them properly, this session becomes the one everyone talks about.
- 12:10 Panel: Holding the Line: Workload, Morale and the Limits of Security Teams
Expanding attack surfaces, growing regulatory pressure, constant operational demands — and teams that are expected to absorb it all. CISOs share honest perspectives on managing workload and prioritising under constraint, exploring what has genuinely made a difference: in tooling, automation, process, and leadership. What does stretched really look like? What gets dropped? And what does sustainable actually mean?
With: Salpi Stojan, Cybersecurity Project Manager, Vivicta (Czech Republic)
Brian Brackenborough, CISO (UK)
Toks Oladuti, Global CISO, Dentons (UK)
- 12:50 Panel: Offensive Security: Breaking Our Own Defences First
Security leaders are increasingly adopting offensive security approaches to uncover the weaknesses attackers would exploit. From red teaming and adversary simulation to breach-and-attack testing and ransomware, this discussion explores what CISOs are learning when they actively challenge their own defences and how those insights are shaping stronger resilience strategies.
- 13:30 Lunch
- 14:20 Fireside Chat: Security and AI - Talent and Mentoring for the Future Enterprise
As AI reshapes organisations, security leaders must evolve both technology capability and people. This practical conversation explores how mentoring now goes both ways - with experienced leaders guiding strategy and governance, while younger professionals bring fresh perspectives on AI, technology and new ways of working. Who believes the CISO role will fundamentally change in the next five years?

Friday 26 June 2026 - CISO 360 Global Congress - Day Two

Timings are provisional

- 15:00 Fireside Chat: Building Resilience into the CNI and Energy Systems
Resilience across critical infrastructure while enabling digital innovation across operational environments?
·What are we securing - and how does that change under real geopolitical stress?
·How does a disruption like the Iran-driven energy crisis impact your environment?
·Where does risk sit across IT, OT, AI and the grid - what's most exposed?
·What does failure look like - and how do you design for it?
·Where do dependencies (third parties, grid) become fragile?
·If this disruption lasts 6-12 months, where does the model get tested?
A conversation with: Jonny Herd, CISO, Zenobe. Barry Coatsworth and further CISOs, CSOs, OT from the energy sectors
- 15:25 Playbooks by Sector
A global financial institution, an energy operator, a retail giant, and a pharma innovator face cybersecurity challenges that are deeply shaped by their operating models, regulatory obligations, technologies, and global footprint. Cross-sector lessons are valuable for the Panels and Playbooks unlocking a different kind of intelligence and benchmarking. A perfect evolution for the 10-year marker.
- Financial Services & Insurance
  - Critical National Infrastructure / Power / Energy
  - Retail & FMCG
  - Technology Companies
- 16:00 Frontier AI Lab - An Insider View
What does it actually look like inside one of these organisations, trying to build something this powerful responsibly - and what should enterprise security leaders understand about that process that they currently don't? A conversation between a frontier lab safety lead and a senior CISO about the gap between how AI risk is understood inside the lab versus inside the enterprise.
· What is the gap between how AI risk is evaluated inside a lab and how it is governed inside an enterprise and who is responsible for closing it?
· What are adversaries doing with AI right now that most security leaders in this room have not yet encountered?
· What should the CISO community be demanding from AI developers, from governments, and from their own boards that it is not yet demanding?
Anthropic, GoogleDeepMind, Open AI, AI Security Institute -invited
- 16:20 Fireside Chat: 'Talk to the Board' - Board Engagement After High-Profile Cyber Attacks
The board relationship is the central professional tension for many CISOs in the room. A CISO will share what works, a Director talks about the gap between what CISOs present and what boards actually hear and how to communicate more effectively. A look past the headlines to dissect the true evolution of executive oversight. Have boards moved beyond reactive panic toward a sophisticated understanding of fiduciary liability and digital resilience when it comes to cyber?
With: Chris Gunner, vCISO, Thrive; Ian Schenkel, VP of EMEA & APAC, Intel 471

VENUE INFORMATION

A TIMELESS HISTORICAL OASIS OF ESTORIL, ONLY A 30-MINUTE DRIVE FROM LISBON CENTRE

Palácio Estoril
R. Particular 2769-504 Estoril
Lisbon | Portugal

On the sunlit Cascais coast, just outside Lisbon, the Palácio Estoril offers nearly a century of elegance, discretion and quiet significance. Estoril is no ordinary setting. Befittingly, during WWII, the hotel became a neutral crossroads for intelligence networks - with Allied agents based at the Palácio while rival operatives occupied nearby hotels. In 1968, James Bond stayed here during the filming of On Her Majesty's Secret Service, where reality and legend briefly converged.

A decade of practitioner-led trust deserves a venue defined by discretion, strategy and global perspective. A place where history was shaped quietly behind closed doors.

Ten years on, we gather somewhere worthy of the milestone 10th CISO 360 Global Congress.

A CISO problem shared is a CISO problem halved

"CISO 360 Global Congress is the congress for CISOs and senior cybersecurity practitioners to attend. The scope of topics presented is excellent!"

CISO, DPO and Director of the Internal Control Office, Comissao do Mercado de Valores Mobiliarios, Portugal

"Refreshing views of security topics for knowledge improvement!"

CISO, Bank Credibom (Portugal)

"The people are amazing. CISO 360 gathers the best of the best – the organisations that came here, the speakers are fantastic, the vendors that we can speak to about the products are great. It's really hard to say no to the Pulse team. I absolutely love them. The talks have been fantastic and piqued my interest. The most interesting contact has been about management, case studies, third-party risk, and AI. The camaraderie that is achieved through the social networking events is fantastic. We went out on the catamaran and, to be honest, I thought I was going to be sick, mainly because of the boat, but it was still so good. Afterwards the meal was fantastic. These are the smallest things that Pulse do for individuals such as myself that they don't need to do, but they go out of their way just to make us feel comfortable, especially in a new city as well I've never been to before, so massive thanks for that."

Ibraheem Khan, VP Information Security EMEA, at a financial services firm

"It seemed like everything was perfectly set to ensure a smooth event gathering 100+ valued guests. Loved the energy, the talks, the stands and also the choice of networking activities!"

CISO, Engie (France)

"One of the few must-not-miss events for every CISO. Wonderful opportunity to learn new things, and have in-depth discussions on what really matters, with real practitioners and industry legends (still alive)."

CISO & DPO, 360 Treasury Systems AG, Germany

"It is hard to describe what an amazing experience it was to attend, in person, a conference after such a long time. From impeccable and reassuring preconference comms to a beautiful indoor and outdoor setting, excellent speakers and audience engagement, surprisingly unobtrusive vendors where productive conversations were held, without all the sales hype. It will certainly be a conference I will not forget and setting a standard with which, I will hold other conferences to."

Global Deputy CISO, Cushman & Wakefield

"CISO 360 is the perfect balance between working, socialising, and networking. So the appealing thing about coming here is you get to meet a load of people that you wouldn't normally get in front of, so there's some smaller vendors who if you Google certain area they're probably not going to come up in the first page and you get to meet them and they get to tell you about their interesting new take on the technology, and you get to do it in a really nice setting, it's a lovely hotel, the events that Pulse put on outside of the hotel are really good, where you get to socialise with people and after a couple of drinks they kind of tell you a bit more truthfully what their products can do which is really, really useful. And then you get to do the follow-on, the boring stuff where they take you through a slide deck in London afterwards, so you get to meet them properly first, and then learn about the bump that they've got from their sales team afterwards so that's really cool."
